

Two Charity Law Workshops in Saskatoon

August 4, 2011
Delta Bessborough Hotel
601 Spadina Crescent East, Saskatoon, SK

Governance, Corporate Law Changes and CRA's Fundraising Guidance (9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.)

The 2011 Federal Budget included a number of proposals that will affect charities. Join charity lawyer Mark Blumberg and receive an update on the new Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act and learn how you can prepare for the changes it will require. In addition, Mark will be reviewing Canada Revenue Agency's Fundraising Guidance, provide an update on changes to the Guidance, and address key compliance and standards issues in fundraising. You will learn about:

- key provisions of the recent federal budget dealing with charities;
- how the Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act applies to your charity;
- CRA's rules on appropriate allocation of fundraising expenses;
- new transparency, accountability and disclosure requirements that have been introduced for Canadian charities;
- the consequences of inappropriate fundraising, including director and officer liability.

The Dos and Don'ts of Charitable Receipting (12:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.)

Did you know that 89% of registered charities were found to be improperly issuing official donation receipts when audited by CRA? Join charity lawyer Mark Blumberg as he discusses charitable receipting and how to make sure that your charitable status is not jeopardized. Following the session, you will be able to answer these questions and many more:

- when is your charity allowed to issue official donation receipts and for how much?
- what is split receipting and how does it affect your galas, golf tournaments and other fundraisers?
- what are the top receipting mistakes and abuses and how do you avoid them?

Who should attend these workshops?

- CEOs, directors, staff, and volunteers of Canadian registered charities that are involved with either fundraising, issuing donation receipts or governance
