

Canadian Charities Recently Revoked by the Charities Directorate of CRA for Cause 2011

By Mark Blumberg (April 21, 2011)

Last year we published a list of registered charities that had been revoked for cause along with a list of the directors of each charity. To my surprise three charity lawyers were on the list as directors of some of the revoked charities. That list can be found at:

http://www.globalphilanthropy.ca/index.php/blog/comments/canadian\_charities\_recently\_revoked\_by\_the\_charities\_directorate\_of\_cra\_for/

Here is another list that covers April 1, 2010 to April 21, 2011 of Canadian registered charities that lost their charitable status for cause. Some more surprises in this batch.

The CRA notes that revoked for cause is:

Registration as a charity has been cancelled as the direct result of an audit. Generally, only the most severe cases of non-compliance, or cases where there is continuous non-compliance (despite attempts by the Charities Directorate to get offending charities on side), result in revocation for cause.

The information is taken directly from the CRA's publicly accessible database located at <http://www.cra-arc.gc.ca/ebci/haip/srch/advancedsearch-eng.action>

The information in the T-3010s is based on filings by the registered charities and therefore there are no assurances that it is correct. The charity filing the information may have provided incorrect information and CRA may have incorrectly inputted the information. For the most up to date information see CRA's database.

Also some of the audit letters sent by CRA to certain registered charities are listed at:

http://www.globalphilanthropy.ca/index.php/blog/comments/canada\_revenue\_agency\_deregistering\_record\_number\_of\_questionable\_canadian/

Information was accessed from the CRA Charities database on April 21, 2011 and is therefore only accurate as of that date.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - AFRICANADIAN MEDIATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that the Africanadian Mediation and Community Services (the Organization) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act. In particular, it was found that the Organization did not maintain adequate books and records, and had provided inappropriate benefits to its Executive Director. The Organization reported tax-receipted gifts of $234,289 in 2006 and $40,271 in 2007 of which tax-receipted non-cash gifts were reported to be $201,200 and $23,100, respectively, which were purportedly comprised mainly of used items. Records could not be provided to detail the amounts of gifts-in-kind received. Inappropriate benefits to the Executive Director in both 2006 and 2007 included payments for his educational studies and utilities of his personal residence. For each of these reasons and other concerns identified during the course of the audit, it is the CRA's view that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - ASL CHARITY FOUNDATION

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that ASL Charity Foundation (the Organization) has failed to operate for exclusively charitable purposes. The Organization has failed to demonstrate that recipients of funding were objects of poverty or recipients of scholarships; failed to demonstrate adequate direction and control over its foreign activities; failed to comply with the Income Tax Act (the Act) on the issuance of official donation receipts; and failed to maintain and/or provide adequate books and records. For all of these reasons, and for each of these reasons alone, it is the position of the CRA that the Organization's registration should be revoked.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - DOWNSVIEW NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH OF GOD

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that the Downsview New Testament Church of God (the Organization) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act (the Act). In particular, the audit revealed that the Organization's books and records were non-existent, preventing CRA from determining whether the Organization's resources were devoted to its charitable activities or whether any charitable activities were even undertaken. For this reason it is the CRA's view that the Organization no longer meets the requirements for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - ESSENTIAL GRACE FOUNDATION

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit had revealed that the Essential Grace Foundation (the Organization) operated primarily for the personal benefit of two corporations and their shareholders seeking to dispose of their assets; failed to issue official donation receipts in accordance with the Income Tax Act (the Act); filed an inaccurate Registered Charity Information Return; and failed to maintain and/or provide adequate records. For all of these reasons, and for each of these reasons alone, it is the position of the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) that the Organization's registration should be revoked.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - HENVEY INLET FIRST NATION COMMUNITY SUPPORT ORGANIZATION

Based on the audit results, it is our position that the Organization has operated for the non-charitable purpose of promoting tax shelter arrangements in return for an accommodation fee of 1 %. In addition, it is our position that the Organization has failed to devote all its resources to charitable activities; issued receipts for transactions that do not qualify as gifts; issued receipts otherwise than in accordance with the Income Tax Act and its Regulations; and has failed to maintain sufficient books and records to support its activities... For all of these reasons, and for each of these reasons alone, it is the position of the Canada Revenue Agency that the Organization's registration should be revoked.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - KOREAN FEDERATION OF CANADA MISSIONS SOCIETY

Our audit revealed the Korean Federation of Canada Missions Society (the Organization) primarily operates for the purpose of providing undue benefits to its directors, and has failed to demonstrate that it operates as a charitable organization devoting all its resources to charitable activities. An insufficient separation between the Organization's operations and the personal interests of those responsible for its operation were also revealed. The Organization failed to maintain and failed to provide adequate records to support the activities and amounts reported on its annual information returns. As a result, the Organization was unable to substantiate the activities undertaken by it or to provide support that the personal living expenditures incurred were for charitable activities.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - METRO STREET FOCUS ORGANIZATION

It is the view of the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) that donation receipts have been improperly issued for amounts greater than the amounts donated, receipts were issued for transactions that do not qualify as gifts or are otherwise not in accordance with the Income Tax Act and its Regulations; adequate records to support charitable activities and operating costs were not maintained; and income was used for the personal benefit of the director. For all of these reasons, and for each of these reasons alone, it is the position of the CRA that the charitable registration of the Organization should be revoked.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - PAROLE DE GRACE LONDON

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit revealed that the Parole De Grace London (the Organization) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act. The audit found serious issues of non-compliance in that the Organization failed to maintain adequate books and records to permit the verification of the reported financial information. Consequently, we were unable to determine if the Organization satisfied its legal obligations under the Act and operated for charitable purposes. The Organization did not maintain a general ledger, lacked source documentation to support reported revenue and expenses, did not provide documentary evidence to substantiate the purported foreign programs being undertaken, and could not account for the number of donation receipt books printed or used during the period under audit. For each of these reasons and other concerns identified during the course of the audit, it is the CRA's view that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - PEDIATRIC AIDS CANADA/USA

The audit of Pediatric AIDS Canada/USA (the Organization) has revealed serious issues of non-compliance. In particular, the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) found that the Organization devoted the majority of its resources to fundraising and administrative expenses rather than on charitable activities. Further, the Organization has participated in an international donation arrangement designed to disguise this lack of activity by artificially inflating the ratio of funds spent on charitable activities. Our audit also found that the Organization failed to file an accurate information return, issued official donation receipts otherwise than in accordance with the Act and gifted funds to a non-qualified donee. For all of these reasons, and for each of these reasons alone, it is the position of the CRA that the Organization's registration should be revoked.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - REDEMPTION FAITH CHURCH/MINISTRIES

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that the Redemption Faith Church/Ministries (the Organization) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act. In particular, the audit revealed the Organization failed to maintain adequate books and records to support revenue, expenditures and charitable activities undertaken, had issued official donations receipts that did not comply with Regulation 3501 of the Act, and could not provide support for the significant amount of non-cash property purportedly donated which would have included the details of said property to determine if the Organization's valuation was representative of the property's fair market value. Given the nature of the non-cash gifts purportedly received, the items would be considered to be of nominal value and, as such, a non-qualifying gift and the value assigned by the Organization considered questionable. For each of these reasons and other concerns identified during the course of the audit, it is the CRA's view that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - RICH WILKERSON MINISTRIES

As explained in our previous letter, the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) audit had revealed that Rich Wilkerson Ministries (the Organization) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act. In particular, the Organization failed to provide the CRA with its books and records for the purpose of inspection, audit or examination. Without evidence to indicate otherwise, it is our position that the Organization failed to maintain adequate books and records, and it has not devoted its resources to charitable activities in support of its charitable purposes. For each of these reasons, it is the CRA's view that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - TAMIL (SRI LANKA) REFUGEE-AID SOCIETY OF OTTAWA

On the basis of the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) audit, we have concluded that the Tamil (Sri Lanka) Refugee-Aid Society of Ottawa (the Society) has ceased to comply with the requirements of the Act for its continued registration in that it: failed to maintain adequate control and direction over the use of its funds; improperly issued tax receipts on behalf of third parties; and provided funding to non-qualified donees outside Canada...[t]his funding included $713,000 provided to an organization which, on the basis of publicly available information detailed in our letter of February 22, 2010, the CRA believes was operating as part of the support network for the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (the LTTE), a listed entity under the United Nations Suppression of Terrorism Regulations and the Criminal Code of Canada. The CRA audit also indicates that fundraising conducted under the Society's auspices involved an individual who has been convicted in the United States of conspiring to provide material support to the LTTE. In addition, the Society's liaison officer for Sri Lanka was named in documents filed with the Federal Court of Canada as a contact for area sales coordinators with the World Tamil Movement, also a listed entity under the Criminal Code of Canada because of its ties to the LTTE.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - THE BLOOD OF JESUS EVANGELISTIC MINISTRY

Our audit of The Blood of Jesus Evangelistic Ministry (the Organization) has identified serious non-compliance with the requirements of the Income Tax Act. In particular, throughout the course of the audit significant receipting discrepancies were discovered and the Organization provided falsified invoices to substantiate expense claims. In addition, it was found that the Organization did not comply with the signed compliance agreement. For each of these reasons and other concerns identified during the course of the audit, it is the Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) position that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - THE GATEWAY BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit of The Gateway Benevolent Society (the Organization) revealed that the Organization operated primarily to facilitate the benefit of four corporations seeking to dispose of their assets in the most advantageous manner. The Organization entered into a number of tax planning transactions, along with other Canadian registered charities, in order to facilitate the sale of each corporation's assets. The CRA audit also revealed that the Organization failed to comply with the Income Tax Act (the Act) on the issuance of official donation receipts, in acquiring control of a corporation and failure to maintain and/or provide adequate books and records. For all of these reasons, and for each of these reasons alone, it is the position of the CRA that the Organization's registration should be revoked.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - THE ORGAN DONATION AND TRANSPLANT ASSOCIATION OF CANADA

The audit of The Organ Donation & Transplant Association of Canada (the Organization) has revealed serious issues of non-compliance. In particular, it was found that the Organization has devoted the majority of its resources to fundraising and administrative expenses rather than on charitable activities. Further, the Organization has participated in an international donation arrangement designed to disguise this lack of activity by artificially inflating the ratio of funds spent on charitable activities. Our audit also found that the Organization failed to maintain adequate books and records, failed to file an accurate information return and failed to meet its annual disbursement quota. For all of these reasons, and for each of these reasons alone, it is the position of the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) that the Organization's registration should be revoked.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - WORLD IMPACT CHURCH

The Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) audit has revealed that the World Impact Church (the Organization) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act (the Act). In particular, it was found that the Organization did not keep adequate books and records, did not report all of the taxable benefits nor prepared the required information slips (T4/T4As) for all employees, and failed to issue official donation receipts that were entirely in compliance with the Act. For each of these reasons and other concerns identified during the course of the audit, it is the CRA's position that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - WORLD ISLAMIC CALL SOCIETY

On the basis of the Canada Revenue Agency audit, we have concluded that the World Islamic Call Society (Society) has ceased to comply with the requirements of the Act for its continued registration as it has failed to meet the definition of a charitable organization under the Act by failing to conduct any substantive charitable activity during the three years under audit. It has also provided a private benefit to a Director.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - 4 PAWS RESCUE SOCIETY OF HOMELESS ANIMALS

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that the 4 Paws Rescue Society of Homeless Animals (the Organization) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act (the Act). In particular, it was found that the Organization did not keep adequate books and records, issued official donations not in accordance with the Act or its Regulations, and provided improper benefits to members. For each of these reasons identified during the course of the audit, it is the CRA's view that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Charity Name: ALBERTA DISTRIBUTION RELIEF AGENCY AID SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL / 891177578RR0001

Charity Status: Revoked - For Cause / Summary

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - ALBERTA DISTRIBUTION RELIEF AGENCY AID SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL

It is our position that Alberta Distribution Relief Agency Aid Society International (the Charity) has operated for the non-charitable purpose of promoting a tax shelter arrangement, for the private benefit of the tax shelter promoters and has failed to demonstrate its control over its international programs. The Charity has issued receipts for transactions that do not qualify as gifts, issued receipts otherwise than in accordance with the Income Tax Act and its Regulations and has failed to maintain sufficient books and records to support its activities. For all of these reasons, and for each of these reasons alone, it is the position of the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) that the Charity's registration should be revoked.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - FUNDS FOR CANADA FOUNDATION

It is our position that the Charity has operated for the non-charitable purpose of promoting a tax shelter arrangement and for the private benefit of the tax shelter promoters. The Charity has issued receipts for transactions that do not qualify as gifts; issued receipts otherwise than in accordance with the Income Tax Act and its Regulations; has failed to maintain sufficient books and records to support its activities; and has failed to meet its annual disbursement quota. For all of these reasons, and for each of these reasons alone, it is the position of the CRA that the Charity's registration should be revoked.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - GHANAIAN MUSLIMS ASSOCIATION OF CANADA

The Ghanaian Muslims Association of Canada (the Charity) through its directors was unresponsive to the Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) attempts to arrange a meeting for the start of the audit and to provide the books and records for review. As a result, the CRA has been unable to verify the Charity's financial position and the charitable activities reportedly carried out. Paragraph 231.1(1) of the Income Tax Act (the Act) permits an authorized person to inspect, audit or examine the books and records of a taxpayer and any document of the taxpayer or of any other person that relates or may relate to the information that is or should be in the books or records of the taxpayer or to any amount payable by the taxpayer under the Act.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - GIVE2ASIA

Our audit revealed that the Charity has contravened the provisions of the Income Tax Act by failing to operate for exclusively charitable purposes. It is our position the Charity has operated solely for the non-charitable purpose of gifting funds to a non-qualified donee, Give2Asia, a U.S. 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Furthermore, the Charity has served as a conduit, allowing the U.S. non-profit to flow funds from Canadian donors through the Charity to the U.S. non-profit, without appropriately controlling and regulating the application of the funds once relinquished. Consequently, it is our position the Charity issued official donation receipts for funds that were directed by donors to a non-qualified donee, which is a contravention of the Act; and has failed to meet its annual disbursement quota as transfers to the U.S. non-profit are not gifts to a qualified donee or expenditures on the Charity's own activities.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - GLOBAL RELIEF AND DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that the Global Relief and Development Organization (the Charity) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act (the Act). In particular, the audit revealed that the Charity's books and records were non-existent, preventing the CRA from determining whether the Charity's resources were devoted to its charitable activities or whether any charitable activities were even undertaken. For this reason, it is the CRA's view that the Charity no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - Healing and Assistance not Dependence Canada

Our audit has concluded that from September 1, 2006, to August 31, 2008, Healing and Assistance not Dependence Canada (the Charity) received nearly $2.8 million in cash through its participation in the Canadian International Aid Program, a registered tax shelter. Of this amount, $1.9 million was transferred to a registered charity and other entities participating in the tax shelter arrangement. Of the 30% or $900,000 retained by the Charity, it reported $543,000 was incurred for administrative costs and $282,000 was devoted to its own charitable programs.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - INTERNATIONAL AID AND SUPPORT ORGANIZATION

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that the International Aid and Support Organization (the Charity) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Act. In particular, the Charity did not maintain adequate books and records to: (1) support the charitable programs reportedly being carried out, and (2) support how it arrived at the amounts reported on the T3010 Information Return and financial statements for the fiscal years ending August 31, 2005 and August 31, 2006. While the Charity's T3010 reported tax-receipted gifts of $0 for 2005 and $16,025 for 2006, the audit revealed the Charity had issued 26 tax-receipts totalling $110,380 in fiscal 2005 and 224 tax-receipts totalling $904,913 in fiscal 2006. Most were purportedly for cash. A bank deposit analysis carried out by the auditor indicated only $42,317 was deposited into the Charity's bank account in 2006. For each of these reasons and other concerns identified during the course of the audit, it is the CRA's view that the Charity no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - INTERNATIONAL FARM AID AND RELIEF MISSION

The audit conducted by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) revealed that the International Farm Aid and Relief Mission (the Charity) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act (the Act). The Charity had not maintained adequate books and records as required by the Act. In addition, the Charity had issued official donation receipts to a director and his spouse for amounts that were not gifts. For each of these reasons and other concerns identified during the course of the audit, it is the CRA's view that the Charity no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - JESUS EL BUEN PASTOR SPANISH PENTECOSTAL CHURCH OF TORONTO

It is our position that the Charity has operated for the non-charitable purpose of promoting a tax shelter arrangement and for the private benefit of the tax shelter promoters. The Charity has issued receipts for transactions that do not qualify as gifts; issued receipts otherwise than in accordance with the Income Tax Act and its Regulations; and has failed to maintain sufficient books and records. For all of these reasons, and for each of these reasons alone, it is the position of the Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) that the Charity's registration should be revoked.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - JESUS HEALING CENTRE

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that the Jesus Healing Centre (the Charity) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Act. In particular, the audit revealed that the Charity lacked control over the donation receipts, did not devote all its resources to charitable purposes and activities, failed to maintain proper books and records, and was unable to demonstrate adequate direction and control over its foreign activities. For each of these reasons and other concerns identified during the course of the audit, it is the CRA's view that the Charity no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration. Effective

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - LIVING WATERS MINISTRY TRUST

Our audit has concluded that from August 11, 2004 to December 31, 2006, Living Waters Ministry Trust issued in excess of $41.6 million in receipts for cash received through a tax shelter arrangement. The Charity, in turn, directed $40.7 million of the cash to another registered charity also participating in this arrangement. Our audit revealed that the vast majority of the cash sent to the other participating charity was subsequently paid to the promoters of the tax shelter arrangement. Of the remainder, the Charity itself paid $ 443,000 in fundraising fees to the tax shelter promoters and retained $416,000 for use in their own activities.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - THE CHRIST HEALING CHURCH

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that The Christ Healing Church (the Charity) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act (the Act). In particular, it was found that the Charity failed to maintain proper books and records, had issued official donation receipts not in accordance with Regulation 3501, had significantly under-reported the total amount for which it had issued official donation receipts, and provided incorrect information on the T3010 Information Return. For each of these reasons and other concerns identified during the course of the audit, it is the CRA's view that the Charity no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - THE KLAL FOUNDATION

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit had revealed that the Klal Foundation (the Charity) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act (the Act). In particular, it was found that the Charity failed to exercise control over resources, had made disbursements to non-qualified donees, failed to maintain adequate books and records, had issued donation receipts not in accordance with the Act, had filed inaccurate T3010A Information Returns, and had late-filed T3010A Information Returns for the five consecutive years since 2003. For each of these reasons, it is the CRA's view that the Charity no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.

Summary of Reasons for Revocation - TRUTH FOUNDATION MINISTRY INC.

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that the Truth Foundation Ministry Inc. (the Charity) was not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act (the Act). In particular, the audit revealed that the Charity's books and records were non-existent, preventing the CRA from determining whether the Charity's resources were devoted to its charitable activities or whether any charitable activities were even undertaken. For this reason identified, it is the CRA's view that the Charity no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration.
