Dear Richard Hughes:

Subject: Notice of intention to revoke
Saints Alive in Jesus of Canada Society

We are writing with respect to our letter dated June 27, 2019 (copy enclosed), in which Saints Alive in Jesus of Canada Society (the Organization) was invited to respond to the findings of the audit conducted by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) for the period from January 1, 2014 to December 31, 2015. Specially, the Organization was to explain why its registration should not be revoked in accordance with subsection 168(1) of the Income Tax Act.

As of this date, we still have not received any response to our letter.

Audit conclusion

The audit by the CRA found that the Organization was not complying with the requirements set out in the Act. In particular, it was found that the Organization failed to maintain proper books and records, failed to file complete and accurate information returns, and failed to file Form T3010 Registered Charities Information Returns, within six months of their fiscal year end. For these reasons, it is our position that the Organization no longer meets the requirements for charitable registration.

Consequently, for the reasons mentioned in our letter dated June 27, 2019, and pursuant to subsection 168(1) and 149.1(2) of the Act, we hereby notify of our intention to revoke the registration of the Organization. By virtue of subsection 168(2) of the Act, the revocation will be effective on the date of publication of the following notice in the Canada Gazette:

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to paragraphs 168(1)(b), 168(1)(c), 168(1)(d) and 168(1)(e) and 149.1(2) of the Income Tax Act, that I propose to revoke the registration of the charity listed below and that by virtue of paragraph 168(2)(b) thereof, the revocation of registration is effective on the date of publication of this notice in the Canada Gazette.

Business number

Should the Organization choose to object to this notice of intention to revoke the Organization's registration in accordance with subsection 168(4) of the Act, a written notice of objection, with the reasons for objection and all relevant facts, must be filed within 90 days from the day this letter was mailed. The notice of objection should be sent to:

Assistant Commissioner
Appeals Branch
Canada Revenue Agency
13th Floor
250 Albert Street
Ottawa ON K1A 0L5

Should the Organization choose not to file an objection to this notice of intention to revoke with the CRA within this period, a copy of the revocation notice, described above, will be published in the Canada Gazette after the expiration of 90 days from the date this letter was mailed. As such, the Organization's registration will be revoked on the date of publication.

A copy of the relevant provisions of the Act concerning revocation of registration, including appeals from a notice of intention to revoke registration, can be found in Appendix A, attached.

Consequences of revocation

As of the effective date of revocation:

- a) the Organization will no longer be exempt from Part I tax as a registered charity and will no longer be permitted to issue official donation receipts. This means that gifts made to the Organization would not be allowable as tax credits to individual donors or as allowable deductions to corporate donors under subsection 118.1(3) and paragraph 110.1(1)(a) of the Act respectively;

Revoked (the Return). The Return must be filed, and the tax paid, on or before the day that is one year from the date of the notice of intention to revoke. The relevant provisions of the Act concerning the tax applicable to revoked charities can also be found in Appendix A, Form T2046 and the related Guide RC4424, Completing the Tax Return Where Registration of a Charity is Revoked, are available on our website at canada.ca/charities-giving;

- c) the Organization will no longer qualify as a charity for purposes of subsection 123(1) of the Excise Tax Act. As a result, the Organization may be subject to obligations and entitlements under the Excise Tax Act that apply to organizations other than charities. If you have any questions about your Goods and Services Tax/Harmonized Sales Tax (GST/HST) obligations and entitlements, please call GST/HST Rulings at 1-888-830-7747 (Quebec) or 1-800-959-8287 (rest of Canada).

Finally, we advise that subsection 150(1) of the Act requires that every corporation (other than a corporation that was a registered charity throughout the year) file a return of income with the Minister in the prescribed form, containing prescribed information, for each taxation year. The return of income must be filed without notice or demand.

Yours sincerely,

Tony Manconi
Director General
Charities Directorate

Dear Richard Hughes:

Subject: Audit of Saints Alive in Jesus of Canada Society

This letter is further to the audit of the books and records of the Saints Alive in Jesus of Canada Society (the Organization) conducted by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). The audit related to the operations of the Organization for the period from January 1, 2014 to December 31, 2015.

CRA has identified specific areas of non-compliance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act (Act) and/or its Regulations in the following areas:

AREAS OF NON-COMPLIANCE:
	Issue	Reference
1.	Failure to maintain adequate books and records	168(1)(b), 168(1)(e), 230(2)
2.	Failure to file an information return as and when required by the Act and/or its Regulations	149.1(14), 168(1)(c)

This letter describes the areas of non-compliance identified by the CRA relating to the legislative and common law requirements that apply to registered charities, and offers the Organization an opportunity to respond and present additional information. The Organization must comply with the law; if it does not, its registered status may be revoked in the manner described in section 168 of the Act.

Background of the Organization

The Organization was incorporated under the British Columbia Society Act on December 3, 1979, and was registered as a charitable organization under the Income Tax Act effective December 17, 1995. The Organization's current purposes are:

Registered purposes (December 3, 1979):

- 1) To promulgate the message of the Holy Bible primarily but not exclusively, among the Mormon people worldwide through all communications media;
- 2) To conduct religious services, both public and private, to promote personal evangelism and global missions by training of churchmen and laymen and by recruiting support personnel for global service and to assist in improving and ameliorating worsening moral and social conditions of humanity.

The Organization's intended activities were to:

- The mission is evangelism through distribution of religious literature. The society provides financing for production, printing and broadcasting of gospel literature, religious programs and films.

The registration was based on the information supplied by the Organization and on the understanding that it would be carrying out the activities listed in its application.

Identified areas of non-compliance

1. Failure to maintain adequate books and records

Pursuant to subsection 230(2) of the Act, every registered charity "shall keep records and books of account [...] at an address in Canada recorded with the Minister or designated by the Minister containing:

- a) information in such form as will enable the Minister to determine whether there are any grounds for revocation of its registration under the Act;
- b) a duplicate of each receipt containing prescribed information for a donation received by it;
- c) other information in such form as will enable the Minister to verify the donations to it for which a deduction or tax credit is available under this Act."

In addition, subsection 230(4) also states "Every person required by this section to keep records and books of account shall retain:

- a) the records and books of account referred to in this section in respect of which a period is prescribed, together with every account and voucher necessary to verify the information contained therein, for such a period as is prescribed;
- b) all other records and books of account referred to in this section, together with every account and voucher necessary to verify the information contained therein, until the expiration of six years from the end of the last taxation year to which the records and books of account relate.”

The policy of the CRA relating to the maintenance of books and records, and books of account, is based on several judicial determinations and the law, which have held that:

- i. it is the responsibility of the registered charity to prove that its charitable status should not be revoked;<sup>1</sup>
- ii. a registered charity must maintain, and make available to the CRA at the time of an audit, meaningful books and records, regardless of its size or resources. It is not sufficient to supply the required documentation and records subsequent thereto;<sup>2</sup> and
- iii. the failure to maintain proper books, records, and records of account in accordance with the requirements of the Act is itself sufficient reason to revoke an organization’s charitable status in the case of material or repeated non-compliance.<sup>3</sup>

Inadequate books and records

Our audit revealed that the Organization failed to maintain adequate books and records of account in the following areas of its operations:

- Book of accounts or general ledgers were not adequately and completely maintained or provided for the 2014 and 2015 fiscal years under review. The only accounting records made available for our review was a summary listing of the bank deposit and withdrawal transactions.
- There were no supporting documents or working papers prepared to reconcile the books and records to the financial statements and the amounts reported, as filed, on the Registered Charity Information Returns (T3010).
- Source documentation to support the revenue, bank deposits, bank withdrawal transactions and film production expenditures were incomplete or missing for the 2014 and 2015 fiscal years. Invoices and receipts were not provided for substantially all of the expenditures reported on the T3010. Furthermore, the minimal supporting documentation provided was insufficient to substantiate that the Organization’s expenditures, during the audit period, were incurred in furtherance of its charitable purposes.

<sup>2</sup> Canadian Committee for the Tel Aviv Foundation, 2002 FCA 72 at para 39, [2002] 2 CTC 93. Furthermore, failing to comply with the requirements of section 230 of the Act by refusing to make documents available can lead to a fine and imprisonment, in addition to the penalty otherwise provided. See subsection 238(1) of the Act.

- A donation listing and copies of official donation receipts were not provided by the Organization for donations totaling $17,000, which were reported on line 4500 on the T3010 for fiscal year 2014.
- The minutes of board and director meetings were not made available. In addition, the Organization failed to maintain planning documents. As a result, there were no supporting documentation for the Board's operational decisions and oversight of the charitable activities.
- The internal controls were considered non-existent as one director managed all aspects of the Organization including: the receipt of revenue, full cheque signing authority, made all decisions, and managed the operation with very little oversight from the other board members.
- The current board structure appears to be contrary to the Organization's bylaws. The board currently consists of only one director, Richard Hughes, as the two other directors resigned effective December 31, 2015.

During the audit, we determined that the books and records were not maintained in a manner that allowed the auditor to verify the accuracy of the charity's reported amount of received donations, other revenue and expenditures for the fiscal years 2014 to 2015. Most expenditures reviewed were not supported by invoices or any other documentation. In many cases, payments were made to film production companies without supporting documentation or a cancelled cheque.

Furthermore, the charity's general ledger did not exist and the bank summary listing could not be reconciled entirely to the financial statement of revenues and expenditures and the T3010 filing.

Weak Internal Controls

An organization's Board of Directors is responsible to safeguard the organization's assets and act in the best interests of the organization they represent. They are also responsible for establishing and maintaining an adequate internal control structure that minimizes the risks associated with any misstatement in the financial reporting of the organization, and prevents or detects error and fraud. The Board should ensure that sufficient internal controls exist around the accounting system, the maintenance of the accounting records, the selection and application of accounting policies and procedures, and the segregation of duties.

Overall the Organization's internal controls were considered inadequate as follows:

- Little to no oversight or approval by the board of directors on decisions taken and expenditures made.
- No organizational policies, written practices or job descriptions are in place.
- It appears that Richard Hughes controls the affairs and resources of the Organization.

- The internal controls were considered non-existent as one director, Richard Hughes solely managed all aspects of the Organization including: the receipt of revenue, full cheque signing authority, made all decisions, and managed the operation with very little oversight from the other board members.
- The board structure is considered weak as it currently consists of only one director, Richard Hughes, as the two other directors resigned effective December 31, 2015.
- The current board structure appears to be contrary to the Organization's bylaws.

Based on our audit findings, the Organization has failed to maintain adequate books and records of account as required per subsection 230(2) and is therefore in contravention of paragraph 168(1)(e) of the Act. As a result, we are unable to confirm the revenue and expenditures as recorded, the accounting of the receipts and the charitable nature of the expenditures as reported on the information return.

Under paragraph 168(1)(e) of the Act, the registration of a charity may be revoked if it fails to comply with or contravenes subsection 230(2) of the Act dealing with books and records. It is our position that the present case consists of material non-compliance. For this reason, we are proposing revocation of the charitable status of the Organization under paragraph 168(1)(e) of the Act.

2. Failure to file an information return as and when required by the Act and/or its Regulations

Subsection 149.1(14) of the Act states that:

Every registered charity and registered Canadian amateur athletic association shall, within six months from the end of each taxation year of the charity or association and without notice or demand, file with the Minister both an information return and a public information return for the year in prescribed form and containing prescribed information.

It is the responsibility of the Organization to ensure that the information provided in its T3010 returns, schedules and statements, is factual and complete in every respect. A charity is not meeting its requirements to file an information return in prescribed form if it fails to exercise due care with respect to ensuring the accuracy thereof. The Federal Court of Appeal has confirmed that major inaccuracies in a T3010 are a sufficient basis for revocation.<sup>4</sup>

The Organization improperly completed its T3010 as follows:

- We were unable to verify the amounts reported on the Organization's T3010 due to the inadequacies identified in the record keeping; specifically, the lack of reconciliation and supporting documentation regarding the accounts.

- There is no allocation on line 5000 for charitable program expenditures on the 2014 and 2015 returns;
- There is no allocation on line 5010 for management and administrative expenditures on the 2015 return;
- Section D was completed rather than the required Schedule 6 on the 2014 and 2015 T3010 returns. Schedule 6 is required to be completed when the amount of all property not used in charitable activities is more than $25,000; the charities revenue exceeds $ 100,000 or if the charity has permission to accumulate funds during the fiscal period.
- The Organization failed to file the T3010 for the fiscal periods ended December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017, as required, within six months of their fiscal year end.

Consequently, the Organization failed to meet its requirements to file a T3010 pursuant to subsection 149.1(14) on time and in prescribed form. Under subsection 168(1)(c) of the Act, the registration of a charity may be revoked if it fails to file a charity information return when required under the Act. It is our position the Organization has failed to comply with the Act by failing to file an accurate T3010. For this reason, we are proposing to revoke the registered status of the Organization under paragraph 168(1)(c) of the Act.

The Organization's options:

a) Respond

If the Organization chooses to respond, send written representations and any additional information regarding the findings outlined above within 30 days from the date of this letter to the address below. After considering the response, the Director General of the Charities Directorate will decide on the appropriate course of action. The possible actions include:

- no compliance action;
- issuing an educational letter;
  - resolving the issues through a Compliance Agreement;
  - applying penalties or suspensions or both, as described in sections 188.1 and 188.2 of the Act; or
- issuing a notice of intention to revoke the registration of the Organization in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.

b) Do not respond

The Organization may choose not to respond. In that case, the Director General of the Charities Directorate may issue a notice of intention to revoke the registration of the Organization in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.

If the Organization appoints a third party to represent it in this matter, send us a written request with the individual's name, the individual's contact information, and explicit authorization that the individual can discuss the file with us.

If you have any questions or require further information or clarification, do not hesitate to contact me at the numbers indicated below. My team leader, Sherri Davis, may also be reached at 250-363-3128.

Tax and Penalties in Respect of Qualified Donees

188 (1) Deemed year-end on notice of revocation

If on a particular day the Minister issues a notice of intention to revoke the registration of a taxpayer as a registered charity under any of subsections 149.1(2) to (4.1) and 168(1) or it is determined, under subsection 7(1) of the Charities Registration (Security Information) Act, that a certificate served in respect of the charity under subsection 5(1) of that Act is reasonable on the basis of information and evidence available,

- (a) the taxation year of the charity that would otherwise have included that day is deemed to end at the end of that day;
- (b) a new taxation year of the charity is deemed to begin immediately after that day; and
- (c) for the purpose of determining the charity's fiscal period after that day, the charity is deemed not to have established a fiscal period before that day.

188 (1.1) Revocation tax

A charity referred to in subsection (1) is liable to a tax, for its taxation year that is deemed to have ended, equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$\mathbf{A} - \mathbf{B}$$

where

A is the total of all amounts, each of which is

- (a) the fair market value of a property of the charity at the end of that taxation year,
- (b) the amount of an appropriation (within the meaning assigned by subsection (2)) in respect of a property transferred to another person in the 120-day period that ended at the end of that taxation year, or
- (c) the income of the charity for its winding-up period, including gifts received by the charity in that period from any source and any income that would be computed under section 3 as if that period were a taxation year; and

B is the total of all amounts (other than the amount of an expenditure in respect of which a deduction has been made in computing income for the winding-up period under paragraph (c) of the description of A), each of which is

- (a) a debt of the charity that is outstanding at the end of that taxation year,
- (b) an expenditure made by the charity during the winding-up period on charitable activities carried on by it, or
- (c) an amount in respect of a property transferred by the charity during the winding-up period and not later than the latter of one year from the end of the taxation year and the day, if any, referred to in paragraph (1.2)(c), to a person that was at the time of the transfer an eligible donee in respect of the charity, equal to the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property, when transferred, exceeds the consideration given by the person for the transfer.

188 (1.2) Winding-up period

In this Part, the winding-up period of a charity is the period that begins immediately after the day on which the Minister issues a notice of intention to revoke the registration of a taxpayer as a registered charity under any of subsections 149.1(2) to (4.1) and 168(1) (or, if earlier, immediately after the day on which it is determined, under subsection 7(1) of the Charities Registration (Security Information) Act, that a certificate served in respect of the charity under subsection 5(1) of that Act is reasonable on the basis of information and evidence available), and that ends on the day that is the latest of

- (a) the day, if any, on which the charity files a return under subsection 189(6.1) for the taxation year deemed by subsection (1) to have ended, but not later than the day on which the charity is required to file that return,
- (b) the day on which the Minister last issues a notice of assessment of tax payable under subsection (1.1) for that taxation year by the charity, and
- (c) if the charity has filed a notice of objection or appeal in respect of that assessment, the day on which the Minister may take a collection action under section 225.1 in respect of that tax payable.

188 (1.3) Eligible donee

In this Part, an eligible donee in respect of a particular charity is

- (a) a registered charity
  - (i) of which more than 50% of the members of the board of directors or trustees of the registered charity deal at arm's length with each member of the board of directors or trustees of the particular charity,
  - (ii) that is not the subject of a suspension under subsection 188.2(1),
  - (iii) that has no unpaid liabilities under this Act or under the Excise Tax Act,
  - (iv) that has filed all information returns required by subsection 149.1(14), and
  - (v) that is not the subject of a certificate under subsection 5(1) of the Charities Registration (Security Information) Act or, if it is the subject of such a certificate, the certificate has been determined under subsection 7(1) of that Act not to be reasonable; or
- (b) a municipality in Canada that is approved by the Minister in respect of a transfer of property from the particular charity.

188 (2) Shared liability – revocation tax

A person who, after the time that is 120 days before the end of the taxation year of a charity that is deemed by subsection (1) to have ended, receives property from the charity, is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with the charity for the tax payable under subsection (1.1) by the charity for that taxation year for an amount not exceeding the total of all appropriations, each of which is the amount by which the fair market value of such a property at the time it was so received by the person exceeds the consideration given by the person in respect of the property.

188 (2.1) Non-application of revocation tax

Subsections (1) and (1.1) do not apply to a charity in respect of a notice of intention to revoke given under any of subsections 149.1(2) to (4.1) and 168(1) if the Minister abandons the intention and so notifies the charity or if

- (a) within the one-year period that begins immediately after the taxation year of the charity otherwise deemed by subsection (1) to have ended, the Minister has registered the charity as a charitable organization, private foundation or public foundation; and
- (b) the charity has, before the time that the Minister has so registered the charity,
  - (i) paid all amounts, each of which is an amount for which the charity is liable under this Act (other than subsection (1.1)) or the Excise Tax Act in respect of taxes, penalties and interest, and
  - (ii) filed all information returns required by or under this Act to be filed on or before that time.

188 (3) Transfer of property tax

Where, as a result of a transaction or series of transactions, property owned by a registered charity that is a charitable foundation and having a net value greater than 50% of the net asset amount of the charitable foundation immediately before the transaction or series of transactions, as the case may be, is transferred before the end of a taxation year, directly or indirectly, to one or more charitable organizations and it may reasonably be considered that the main purpose of the transfer is to effect a reduction in the disbursement quota of the foundation, the foundation shall pay a tax under this Part for the year equal to the amount by which 25% of the net value of that property determined as of the day of its transfer exceeds the total of all amounts each of which is its tax payable under this subsection for a preceding taxation year in respect of the transaction or series of transactions.

188 (3.1) Non-application of subsection (3)

Subsection (3) does not apply to a transfer that is a gift to which subsection 188.1(11) or (12) applies.

188 (4) Joint and several, or solidary, liability – tax transfer

If property has been transferred to a charitable organization in circumstances described in subsection (3) and it may reasonably be considered that the organization acted in concert with a charitable foundation for the purpose of reducing the disbursement quota of the foundation, the organization is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with the foundation for the tax imposed on the foundation by that subsection in an amount not exceeding the net value of the property.

188 (5) Definitions – In this section,

net asset amount of a charitable foundation at any time means the amount determined by the formula

$$\mathbf{A} - \mathbf{B}$$

where

A is the fair market value at that time of all the property owned by the foundation at that time, and

B is the total of all amounts each of which is the amount of a debt owing by or any other obligation of the foundation at that time;

net value of property owned by a charitable foundation, as of the day of its transfer, means the amount determined by the formula

$$\mathbf{A} - \mathbf{B}$$

where

A is the fair market value of the property on that day, and

B is the amount of any consideration given to the foundation for the transfer.

189 (6) Taxpayer to file return and pay tax

Every taxpayer who is liable to pay tax under this Part (except a charity that is liable to pay tax under section 188(1)) for a taxation year shall, on or before the day on or before which the taxpayer is, or would be if tax were payable by the taxpayer under Part I for the year, required to file a return of income or an information return under Part I for the year,

(a) file with the Minister a return for the year in prescribed form and containing prescribed information, without notice or demand therefor;

(b) estimate in the return the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Receiver General the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under this Part for the year.

189 (6.1) Revoked charity to file returns

Every taxpayer who is liable to pay tax under subsection 188(1.1) for a taxation year shall, on or before the day that is one year from the end of the taxation year, and without notice or demand,

(a) file with the Minister

- (i) a return for the taxation year, in prescribed form and containing prescribed information, and
- (ii) both an information return and a public information return for the taxation year, each in the form prescribed for the purpose of subsection 149.1(14); and

(b) estimate in the return referred to in subparagraph (a)(i) the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under subsection 188(1.1) for the taxation year; and

(c) pay to the Receiver General the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under subsection 188(1.1) for the taxation year.

189 (6.2) Reduction of revocation tax liability

If the Minister has, during the one-year period beginning immediately after the end of a taxation year of a person, assessed the person in respect of the person's liability for tax under subsection 188(1.1) for that taxation year, has not after that period reassessed the tax liability of the person, and that liability exceeds $1,000, that liability is, at any particular time, reduced by the total of

(a) the amount, if any, by which

- (i) the total of all amounts, each of which is an expenditure made by the charity, on charitable activities carried on by it, before the particular time and during the period (referred to in this subsection as the "post-assessment period") that begins immediately after a notice of the latest such assessment was sent and ends at the end of the one-year period exceeds

- (ii) the income of the charity for the post-assessment period, including gifts received by the charity in that period from any source and any income that would be computed under section 3 if that period were a taxation year, and

(b) all amounts, each of which is an amount, in respect of a property transferred by the charity before the particular time and during the post-assessment period to a person that was at the time of the transfer an eligible donee in respect of the charity, equal to the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property, when transferred, exceeds the consideration given by the person for the transfer.

189 (6.3) Reduction of liability for penalties

If the Minister has assessed a particular person in respect of the particular person's liability for penalties under section 188.1 for a taxation year, and that liability exceeds $1,000, that liability is, at any particular time, reduced by the total of all amounts, each of which is an amount, in respect of a property transferred by the particular person after the day on which the Minister first assessed that liability and before the particular time to another person that was at the time of the transfer an eligible donee described in paragraph 188(1.3)(a) in respect of the particular person, equal to the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property, when transferred, exceeds the total of

- (a) the consideration given by the other person for the transfer, and
- (b) the part of the amount in respect of the transfer that has resulted in a reduction of an amount otherwise payable under subsection 188(1.1).

189 (7) Minister may assess

Without limiting the authority of the Minister to revoke the registration of a registered charity or registered Canadian amateur athletic association, the Minister may also at any time assess a taxpayer in respect of any amount that a taxpayer is liable to pay under this Part.
