Dear Richard Koeppel:

Subject: Notice of intention to revoke
Essential Furnishings of Hamilton-Wentworth Social Services

We are writing with respect to our letters dated November 8, 2018, April 29, 2019, and February 3, 2020, (copies enclosed), in which Essential Furnishings of Hamilton-Wentworth Social Services (the Organization) was invited to respond to the findings of the review conducted by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) for the period from January 1, 1996 to December 31, 2017, and explain why the registration of the Organization should not be revoked in accordance with subsection 168(1) of the Income Tax Act.

As of this date, we still have not received any response to our letters.

As such, our position remains that the Organization is inactive and failed to devote its resources on charitable activities.

Conclusion

It is our position that the Act requires that a registered charity be active in order to meet the requirements for continued charitable registration, including operating in furtherance of charitable purposes, unless a reasonable explanation for suspension of operations is provided. The Minister of National Revenue has the authority to revoke charitable registration when an organization fails to meet these requirements.

The review by the CRA has revealed that the Organization is not complying with the requirements set out in the Act. In particular, it was found that the Organization did not devote its resources to charitable purposes and activities. For this reason, it is the position of the CRA that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration and should be revoked in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.

It appears, based on the result of our review, that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration because it is not operating for charitable purposes and not devoting its resources to charitable activities. Under subsection 149.1(2) of the Act, the Minister may revoke the registration of the charitable organization in the manner as described at paragraph 168(1)(b) of the Act because it has failed to comply with the requirements of the Act for its registration as such.

For each of the reasons mentioned in our letters dated November 8, 2018, April 29, 2019, and February 3, 2020, pursuant to subsection 168(1) and 149.1(2) of the Act, we propose to revoke the registration of the Organization. By virtue of subsection 168(2) of the Act, revocation will be effective on the date of publication of the following notice in the Canada Gazette:

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to paragraphs 168(1)(b), and 168(1)(e), and subsection 149.1(2), of the Income Tax Act, that I propose to revoke the registration of the charity listed below and that by virtue of paragraph 168(2)(b) thereof, the revocation of registration is effective on the date of publication of this notice in the Canada Gazette.

Business number	Name
89762 9440 RR0002	Essential Furnishings of Hamilton-Wentworth Social Services Hamilton ON

Should the Organization choose to object to this notice of intention to revoke the Organization's registration in accordance with subsection 168(4) of the Act, a written notice of objection, with the reasons for objection and all relevant facts, must be filed within 90 days from the day this letter was mailed. The notice of objection should be sent to:

Assistant Commissioner
Appeals Intake Centre
Canada Revenue Agency
Post Office Box 2006, Station Main
Newmarket ON L3Y 0E9

Should the Organization choose not to file an objection to this notice of intention to revoke with the CRA within this period, a copy of the revocation notice, described above, will be published in the Canada Gazette after the expiration of 90 days from the date this letter was mailed. As such, the Organization's registration will be revoked on the date of publication.

A copy of the relevant provisions of the Act concerning revocation of registration, including appeals from a notice of intention to revoke registration, can be found in Appendix A, attached.

Consequences of revocation

As of the effective date of revocation:

- a) the Organization will no longer be exempt from Part I tax as a registered charity and will no longer be permitted to issue official donation receipts. This means that gifts made to the Organization would not be allowable as tax credits to individual donors or as allowable deductions to corporate donors under subsection 118.1(3) and paragraph 110.1(1)(a) of the Act respectively;
- b) by virtue of section 188 of the Act, the Organization will be required to pay a tax within one year from the date of the notice of intention to revoke. This revocation tax is calculated on Form T2046, Tax Return Where Registration of a Charity is Revoked (the Return). The Return must be filed, and the tax paid, on or before the day that is one year from the date of the notice of intention to revoke. The relevant provisions of the Act concerning the tax applicable to revoked charities can also be found in Appendix A. Form T2046 and the related Guide RC4424, Completing the Tax Return Where Registration of a Charity is Revoked, are available on our website at canada.ca/charities-giving;
- c) the Organization will no longer qualify as a charity for purposes of subsection 123(1) of the Excise Tax Act. As a result, the Organization may be subject to obligations and entitlements under the Excise Tax Act that apply to organizations other than charities. If you have any questions about your Goods and Services Tax/Harmonized Sales Tax (GST/HST) obligations and entitlements, please call GST/HST Rulings at 1-888-830-7747 (Quebec) or 1-800-959-8287 (rest of Canada).

Finally, we advise that subsection 150(1) of the Act requires that every corporation (other than a corporation that was a registered charity throughout the year) file a return of income with the Minister in the prescribed form, containing prescribed information, for each taxation year. The return of income must be filed without notice or demand.

Yours sincerely,

Tony Manconi

Subject: Review of Essential Furnishings of Hamilton-Wentworth Social Services

Dear Richard Koeppel:

We are writing to inform you that Essential Furnishings of Hamilton-Wentworth Social Services (the Organization) has been selected by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) for a review as a registered charity under the Income Tax Act. The review relates to the Organization's fiscal period from January 1, 1996 to December 31, 2016.

Our review of Form T3010, Registered Charity Information Return, filed for the above mentioned fiscal periods indicates that the Organization has been inactive for the last twenty one consecutive years. In addition, we note that since the Organization was initially registered on January 1, 1996, it has not carried on any charitable activities.

In this regard, it is our view that the Act requires a registered charity to be active in order to be meeting the requirements for which it obtained registration. Therefore, based on the interpretation of a combination of wording used in particular provisions of the Act, the Minister of National Revenue has the authority to grant registered status to those entities that are active and the discretion to revoke those that are inactive.

Specifically, when considering the definition of a "registered charity" in subsection 248(1) of the Act, along with the definition of a charitable organization, in section 149.1, it is our opinion that a registered charity must (emphasis added) be active.

Furthermore, subsection 149.1(1) defines a "charitable organization" in part, as an organization that devotes all of its resources to charitable activities carried on by the organization itself (emphasis added).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we appreciate that there can be a variety of legitimate circumstances which may prevent a registered charity from carrying out its operations as planned.

In this regard, please provide us with a written response explaining why the Organization has not been actively carrying on its charitable programs, as well as when it plans to begin operations in the future.

Your reply should be as detailed as possible and include specific timelines for the Organization to begin operations. On the basis of the information provided, we will exercise our discretion to determine if the Organization should maintain its registered status.

By contrast, if the Organization no longer intends to carry on charitable programs, it needs to request voluntary revocation of its registered status. If the Organization chooses to exercise this option, we require the request in writing. The request must include the name of the Organization and its Registration/Business Number (BN). It must also be signed and dated by a director, trustee of another person authorized to sign for the Organization (verify the governing document to confirm if more than one signature is required). As a consequence of voluntary revocation, you will no longer be required to complete Form T3010. Additional consequences of voluntary revocation include:

- a) The Organization will no longer be exempt from Part I Tax as a registered charity and will no longer be permitted to issue official donation receipts (emphasis added). This means that gifts made to the Organization would not be allowable as tax credits to individual donors or as allowable deductions to corporate donors under subsection 118.1(3), or paragraph 110.1(1)(a), of the Act, respectively. As the Organization has not issued any official donation receipts recently, this would not appear to be an issue.
- b) By virtue of section 188 of the Act, the Organization will be required to pay a tax within one year from the date stated in Form T2051A, Notice of Intention to Revoke a Charity's Registration. This revocation tax is calculated on prescribed Form T2046, Tax Return Where Registration of a Charity is Revoked.

Under the Act, a registered charity becomes liable to pay the revocation tax when it voluntarily gives up its registration, or when the CRA revokes its registration. The purpose of this tax is to ensure that charitable property is applied to charitable use. In essence, it requires a revoked charity to spend its money on its charitable programs or to donate it to an eligible donee. If the revoked charity does this, the tax may be zero. To the extent that it fails to do this, the tax is set at the amount that remains once outstanding debts have been paid. Persons connected with the charity can also be liable for the tax under certain circumstances.

Form T2046 must be filed, and the tax paid, on or before the day that is one year from the date stated in the T2051A. Form T2046 is available on our website at canada.ca/charities-giving.

Subsection 188(2) of the Act stipulates that a person (other than a qualified donee) who receives an amount from the charity is jointly and severally liable with the charity for the tax payable under section 188 of the Act by the charity.

- c) The Organization will no longer qualify as a charity for purposes of subsection 123(1) of the Excise Tax Act (the ETA). As a result, the Organization may be subject to obligations and entitlements under the ETA that apply to organizations other than charities. If you have any questions about your GST/HST obligations and entitlements, please call GST/HST Rulings at 1-888-830-7747 (Quebec) or 1-800-959-8287 (rest of Canada).

Important: The Organization must submit either an explanation with details as to its inactivity or a request for voluntary revocation within 30 days of the date of this letter to the address below. Failure to respond within the required timeframe could potentially result in the revocation of the Organization's registered status.

Please note that the confidentiality provisions of the Act restrict us to discussing the issues in this letter with an authorized representative only. Normally this would be an individual listed as a current director/trustee on Form T1235, Directors/Trustees and Like Officials Worksheet, on file with the CRA.

Consequently, if there have been any changes in directors/trustees of the Organization since it filed its last Form T3010, please forward a copy of the revised Form T1235.

If a third party is representing the Organization, we require written authorization naming the individual, signed by an authorized representative of the Organization, explicitly authorizing that individual to discuss your file with us. You can forward an RC59, Business Consent for access by telephone and mail, available on our website.

If you have any questions or require further information or clarification, please contact me at 613-670-9490.

Subject: Review of Essential Furnishings of Hamilton-Wentworth Social Services

Dear Richard Koeppel:

This letter is further to our letter of November 8, 2018 (copy enclosed), with regards to our review of Essential Furnishings of Hamilton-Wentworth Social Services (the Organization) as a registered charity under the Income Tax Act. The review related to the Organization's fiscal periods ended January 1, 1996 to December 31, 2017¹.

In our previous letter, we advised the Organization that it must submit the information requested within 30 days of the date of the letter and that, failure to respond within the required timeframe could potentially result in the revocation of the Organization's registered status. As we have not yet received a reply to our letter, we hereby propose to revoke the Organization's registration based on the issues of non-compliance with the provisions of the Act and/or its Regulations in the following area, which we have identified:

AREAS OF NON-COMPLIANCE
	Issue	Reference
1.	Devotion of resources - Inactive	248(1), 149.1(1) & 168(1)(b)

¹ In our letter, we had mistakenly written from January 1, 1996 to December 31, 2016.

The purpose of this letter is to describe the area of non-compliance identified by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) during the course of the review as they relate to the legislative and common law requirements applicable to registered charities, as well as to provide the Organization with the opportunity to make additional representations or to present additional information. Registered charities must comply with the law, failing which, the Organization's registered status may be revoked in the manner described in section 168 of the Act.

The balance of this letter describes the identified area of non-compliance in further detail.

Identified area of non-compliance

Devotion of resources - Inactive

The Organization was registered effective January 21, 1996, with the following purpose (also known as objects): "To establish and operate a social service agency for the relief of poverty to benefit needy individuals and families by providing essential and emergency furnishings ("items") to families and individuals that can be clearly defined as low income , with the service being provided in a subsidized manner that allows for items to be obtained at a nominal cost or a token fee", per its Letters of Patent dated November 10, 1995 and incorporated under the laws of the Province of Ontario.

Our review of the Organization's Form T3010, Registered Charity Information Return, for the above-noted fiscal periods, indicates that the Organization has been inactive for the last 22 consecutive years. As such, it is our position that the Organization is inactive and has failed to devote its resources to its own charitable activities.

In this connection, it is our view that the Act requires that a registered charity be active in order to be meeting the requirements for which it obtained registration. Furthermore, it is our opinion that based on the interpretation of a combination of wording used in particular provisions of the Act, the Minister of National Revenue has the authority to grant registered status to those entities that are active, and the discretion to revoke those that are inactive.

Specifically, when considering the definition of a "registered charity" in subsection 248(1) of the Act, along with the definition of a charitable organization, in section 149.1, it is our opinion that a registered charity must (emphasis added) be active.

Furthermore, subsection 149.1(1) defines a "charitable organization" in part, as an organization that devotes all of its resources to charitable activities carried on by the organization itself (emphasis added).

If the Organization no longer intends to carry on charitable programs, it needs to request voluntary revocation of its registered status. If the Organization chooses to exercise this option, we require the request in writing. The written request must be signed and dated by an authorized representative we have on file. As a consequence of voluntary revocation, the Organization will no longer be required to complete the Form T3010.

Additional consequences of voluntary revocation include:

- a) The Organization will no longer be exempt from Part I Tax as a registered charity and will no longer be permitted to issue official donation receipts (emphasis added). This means that gifts made to the Organization would not be allowable as tax credits to individual donors or as allowable deductions to corporate donors under subsection 118.1(3), or paragraph 110.1(1)(a), of the Act, respectively. Since the Organization has not issued any official donation receipts recently, this would not appear to be an issue.
- b) By virtue of section 188 of the Act, the Organization will be required to pay a tax within one year from the date stated in T2051A, Notice of Intention to Revoke a Charity's Registration. This revocation tax is calculated on prescribed Form T2046 Tax Return Where Registration of a Charity is Revoked.

Under the Act, a registered charity becomes liable to pay the revocation tax when it voluntarily gives up its registration, or when the CRA revokes its registration. The purpose of this tax is to ensure that charitable property is applied to charitable use. In essence, it requires a revoked charity to spend its money on its charitable programs or to donate it to an eligible donee. If the revoked charity does this, the tax may be zero. To the extent that the charity fails to do this, the tax is set at the amount that remains, once outstanding debts have been paid. Persons connected with the charity can also be liable for the tax under certain circumstances.

Form T2046 must be filed, and the tax paid, on or before the day that is one year from the date stated in the T2051A. Form 2046 is available on our website at canada.ca/charities-giving.

Subsection 188(2) of the Act stipulates that a person (other than a qualified donee) who receives an amount from the charity is jointly, and severally liable with the charity, for the tax payable under section 188 of the Act by the charity.

- c) The Organization will no longer qualify as a charity for purposes of subsection 123(1) of the Excise Tax Act (the ETA). As a result, the Organization may be subject to obligations and entitlements under the ETA that apply to organizations other than charities. If you have any questions about your GST/HST obligations and entitlements, please call GST/HST Rulings at 1-888-830-7747 (Quebec) or 1-800-959-8287 (rest of Canada).

Important: The Organization must submit either, an explanation with details as to its inactivity, or a request for voluntary revocation within 30 days of the date of this letter, to the address below. Failure to respond within the required timeframe could potentially result in the revocation of the Organization's registered status.

Under subsection 149.1(2) of the Act, the Minister may revoke the registration of the charitable organization, in the manner as described at paragraph 168(1) (b) of the Act because the registered charity has failed to comply with the requirements of the Act for its registration as such.

The Organization's options:

a) Respond

If the Organization chooses to respond, send written representations and any additional information regarding the findings outlined above within 30 days from the date of this letter to the address below. After considering the response, the Director General of the Charities Directorate will decide on the appropriate course of action. The possible actions include:

- no compliance action;
- issuing an educational letter;
- resolving the issues through a Compliance Agreement;
- applying penalties or suspensions or both, as described in sections 188.1 and 188.2 of the Act; or
- issuing a notice of intention to revoke the registration of the Organization in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.

b) Do not respond

The Organization may choose not to respond. In that case, the Director General of the Charities Directorate may issue a notice of intention to revoke the registration of the Organization in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.

If the Organization appoints a third party to represent it in this matter, send us a written request with the individual's name, the individual's contact information, and explicit authorization that the individual can discuss the file with us.

If you have any questions or require further information or clarification, please contact me at 613-670-9490. My manager, Shanee Cesard, may also be reached at 613-670-0509.

Subject: Review of Furnishings of Hamilton-Wentworth Social Services

Dear Richard Koeppel:

This letter is further to our letters of November 8, 2018 and April 29, 2019 (copies enclosed), with regards to our review of Essential Furnishings of Hamilton-Wentworth Social Services (the Organization) as a registered charity under the Income Tax Act. The review related to the Organization's fiscal periods of January 1, 1996 to December 31, 2017.

In our previous letter, we advised the Organization that it must submit the information requested within 30 days of the date of the letter and that failure to respond within the required timeframe could potentially result in the revocation of the Organization's registered status. As we have not yet received a reply to our letter, we hereby propose to revoke the Organization's registration based on the issues of non-compliance with the provisions of the Act and/or its Regulations in the following areas, which we have identified:

AREAS OF NON-COMPLIANCE
	Issue	Reference
1.	Failure to maintain and/or provide adequate books and records	149.1(2), 230(2), 168(1)(b), 168(1)(e)
2.	Failure to comply with the requirements of the Act as they apply to the Organization's designation	149.1(1), 168(1)(b)

The purpose of this letter is to describe the areas of non-compliance identified by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) during the course of the review as they relate to the legislative and common law requirements applicable to registered charities, as well as to provide the Organization with the opportunity to make additional representations or to present additional information. Registered charities must comply with the law, failing which, the Organization's registered status may be revoked in the manner described in section 168 of the Act.

The balance of this letter describes the identified areas of non-compliance in further detail.

Identified areas of non-compliance

1. Failure to provide adequate books and records to show that registration should not be revoked

Pursuant to paragraph 230(2)(a) of the Act, every registered charity "shall keep records and books of account [...] at an address in Canada recorded with the Minister or designated by the Minister containing:

- a) information in such form as will enable the Minister to determine whether there are any grounds for revocation of its registration under the Act;

In addition, subsection 230(4) also states "Every person required by this section to keep records and books of account shall retain:

- a) the records and books of account referred to in this section in respect of which a period is prescribed, together with every account and voucher necessary to verify the information contained therein, for such a period as is prescribed; and
- b) all other records and books of account referred to in this section, together with every account and voucher necessary to verify the information contained therein, until the expiration of six years from the end of the last taxation year to which the records and books of account relate."

With respect to the legislative requirement that registered charities maintain books and records, several judicial determinations have held that:

- i. it is the responsibility of the registered charity to prove that its charitable status should not be revoked;¹
- ii. a registered charity must maintain, and make available to the CRA at the time of an audit, meaningful books and records, regardless of its size or resources. It is not sufficient to supply the required documentation and records subsequent thereto;² and

¹ See Canadian Committee for the Tel Aviv Foundation, 2002 FCA 72 at paras 26-27, [2002] 2 CTC 93.

² See Canadian Committee for the Tel Aviv Foundation, 2002 FCA 72 at para 39, [2002] 2 CTC 93.

- iii. the failure to maintain proper books, records, and records of account in accordance with the requirements of the Act is itself sufficient reason to revoke an organization's charitable status in the case of material or repeated non-compliance.³

The Organization has failed to provide the books and records necessary to conduct our review. Without evidence to indicate otherwise, we are unable to conclude that the Organization has maintained books and records required by subsection 230(2) of the Act.

Under paragraph 168(1)(e) of the Act, the registration of a charity may be revoked if it fails to comply with or contravenes subsection 230(2) of the Act with respect to books and records. It is our position that the present case, wherein books and records have not been supplied upon request, consists of material non-compliance that is grounds for revocation of the charitable status of the Organization under paragraph 168(1)(e) of the Act.

2. Failure to comply with the requirements of the Act as they apply to the Organization's designation

Subsection 149.1(1) of the Act defines a "charitable organization" to mean, in part, an organization that is:

- (a) constituted and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, and
 - (a.1) all the resources of which are devoted to charitable activities carried on by the organization itself... (emphasis added)

In order to satisfy the definition of a "charitable organization" pursuant to subsection 149.1(1) of the Act, an organization must meet two requirements—it must be both "constituted" and "operated" exclusively for charitable purposes.

Subsection 149.1(1) of the Act defines a "charitable foundation" to mean, in part, a corporation or trust that is constituted and operated exclusively for charitable purposes... (emphasis added)

In order to satisfy the definition of a "charitable foundation" pursuant to subsection 149.1(1) of the Act, an organization must meet two requirements—it must be both "constituted" and "operated" exclusively for charitable purposes.

³ See Prescient Foundation v MNR, 2013 FCA 120 at para 51, [2013] FCJ no 512; Humane Society of Canada for the Protection of Animals and the Environment v. Minister of National Revenue, 2015 FCA 178 at paras 76-79; Jaamiah Al Ulloom Al Islamiyah Ontario v. Canada (National Revenue), 2016 FCA 49 at para 15; Opportunities for the Disabled Foundation v. Canada (National Revenue), 2016 FCA 94 at paras 37-39; and Ark Angel Foundation v. Canada (National Revenue), 2019 FCA 21 at para 43.

The first requirement, to be “constituted” for exclusively charitable purposes is achieved by having a governing document (letters patent, articles of incorporation, a constitution, or a trust document) that establishes the organization for exclusively charitable purposes and gives an organization its legal existence.⁴ The Organization appears to have been constituted for charitable purposes based on our review of the Organization’s Letters Patent dated November 10, 1995.

The second requirement is that the organization be “operated” for exclusively charitable purposes. The Oxford Canadian Dictionary⁵, defines “operate” (of a person or an organization) as “manage, work, control; put or keep in a functional state” and as to “be in action; function”.

Thus the second requirement is operational in nature and requires a determination as to whether an organization is “managed” or in a “functional state” by examining the specific activities undertaken or planned to be undertaken by the organization.

The definition of charitable organization is expressed in the present tense, indicating an existing state of affairs. It is not enough that the organization was once “operated” for charitable purposes, it must continue to do so. In our previous letters dated November 8, 2018 and April 29, 2019, we requested a detailed description of the Organization’s activities and programs in order to determine if it continues to be “operated” for exclusively charitable purposes. To date the Organization has yet to provide us with the information requested. Without documentary evidence substantiating that the Organization is carrying on or plans on carrying on any activities it is our view that the Organization no longer meets the designation requirements of a charitable organization.

Under paragraph 168(1)(b) of the Act, the registration of a charity may be revoked if it ceases to comply with the requirements of the Act for its registration. It is our position that the present case consists of material non-compliance. For this reason, it appears to us that there are grounds for revocation of the charitable status of the Organization under paragraph 168(1)(b) of the Act.

If the Organization no longer intends to carry on charitable programs, it should request voluntary revocation of its registered status. If the Organization chooses to exercise this option, we require the request in writing. The written request must be signed and dated by an authorized representative we have on file. Once revoked, the Organization will no longer be required to complete Form T3010. Additional consequences of voluntary revocation include:

⁴ All registered charities must be legally established by a governing document. Charitable organizations can be established as a corporation, a trust, or under a constitution. Charitable foundations can be established as a corporation or a trust.

⁵ University Press First Published 2000; reissued 2004.

- a) The Organization will no longer be exempt from Part I Tax as a registered charity and will no longer be permitted to issue official donation receipts (emphasis added). This means that gifts made to the Organization would not be allowable as tax credits to individual donors or as allowable deductions to corporate donors under subsection 118.1(3), or paragraph 110.1(1)(a), of the Act, respectively. Since the Organization has not issued any official donation receipts recently, this would not appear to be an issue.
- b) By virtue of section 188 of the Act, the Organization will be required to pay a tax within one year from the date stated in T2051A, Notice of Intention to Revoke a Charity's Registration. This revocation tax is calculated on prescribed Form T2046 Tax Return Where Registration of a Charity is Revoked.

Under the Act, a registered charity becomes liable to pay the revocation tax when it voluntarily gives up its registration, or when the CRA revokes its registration. The purpose of this tax is to ensure that charitable property is applied to charitable use. In essence, it requires a revoked charity to spend its money on its charitable programs or to donate it to an eligible donee. If the revoked charity does this, the tax may be zero. To the extent that the charity fails to do this, the tax is set at the amount that remains, once outstanding debts have been paid. Persons connected with the charity can also be liable for the tax under certain circumstances.

Form T2046 must be filed, and the tax paid, on or before the day that is one year from the date stated in the T2051A. Form 2046 is available on our website at canada.ca/charities-giving.

Subsection 188(2) of the Act stipulates that a person (other than a qualified donee) who receives an amount from the charity is jointly, and severally liable with the charity, for the tax payable under section 188 of the Act by the charity.

- c) The Organization will no longer qualify as a charity for purposes of subsection 123(1) of the Excise Tax Act (the ETA). As a result, the Organization may be subject to obligations and entitlements under the ETA that apply to organizations other than charities. If you have any questions about your GST/HST obligations and entitlements, please call GST/HST Rulings at 1-888-830-7747 (Quebec) or 1-800-959-8287 (rest of Canada).

Important: The Organization must submit either, an explanation with details as to its inactivity, or a request for voluntary revocation within 30 days of the date of this letter, to the address below. Tax and Penalties in Respect of Qualified Donees

188 (1) Deemed year-end on notice of revocation

If on a particular day the Minister issues a notice of intention to revoke the registration of a taxpayer as a registered charity under any of subsections 149.1(2) to (4.1) and 168(1) or it is determined, under subsection 7(1) of the Charities Registration (Security Information) Act, that a certificate served in respect of the charity under subsection 5(1) of that Act is reasonable on the basis of information and evidence available,

- (a) the taxation year of the charity that would otherwise have included that day is deemed to end at the end of that day;
- (b) a new taxation year of the charity is deemed to begin immediately after that day; and
- (c) for the purpose of determining the charity's fiscal period after that day, the charity is deemed not to have established a fiscal period before that day.

188 (1.1) Revocation tax

A charity referred to in subsection (1) is liable to a tax, for its taxation year that is deemed to have ended, equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$\mathbf{A} - \mathbf{B}$$

where

A is the total of all amounts, each of which is

- (a) the fair market value of a property of the charity at the end of that taxation year,
- (b) the amount of an appropriation (within the meaning assigned by subsection (2)) in respect of a property transferred to another person in the 120-day period that ended at the end of that taxation year, or
- (c) the income of the charity for its winding-up period, including gifts received by the charity in that period from any source and any income that would be computed under section 3 as if that period were a taxation year; and

B is the total of all amounts (other than the amount of an expenditure in respect of which a deduction has been made in computing income for the winding-up period under paragraph (c) of the description of A), each of which is

- (a) a debt of the charity that is outstanding at the end of that taxation year,
- (b) an expenditure made by the charity during the winding-up period on charitable activities carried on by it, or
- (c) an amount in respect of a property transferred by the charity during the winding-up period and not later than the latter of one year from the end of the taxation year and the day, if any, referred to in paragraph (1.2)(c), to a person that was at the time of the transfer an eligible donee in respect of the charity, equal to the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property, when transferred, exceeds the consideration given by the person for the transfer.

188 (1.2) Winding-up period

In this Part, the winding-up period of a charity is the period that begins immediately after the day on which the Minister issues a notice of intention to revoke the registration of a taxpayer as a registered charity under any of subsections 149.1(2) to (4.1) and 168(1) (or, if earlier, immediately after the day on which it is determined, under subsection 7(1) of the Charities Registration (Security Information) Act, that a certificate served in respect of the charity under subsection 5(1) of that Act is reasonable on the basis of information and evidence available), and that ends on the day that is the latest of

- (a) the day, if any, on which the charity files a return under subsection 189(6.1) for the taxation year deemed by subsection (1) to have ended, but not later than the day on which the charity is required to file that return,
- (b) the day on which the Minister last issues a notice of assessment of tax payable under subsection (1.1) for that taxation year by the charity, and
- (c) if the charity has filed a notice of objection or appeal in respect of that assessment, the day on which the Minister may take a collection action under section 225.1 in respect of that tax payable.

188 (1.3) Eligible donee

In this Part, an eligible donee in respect of a particular charity is

- (a) a registered charity
 - (i) of which more than 50% of the members of the board of directors or trustees of the registered charity deal at arm's length with each member of the board of directors or trustees of the particular charity,
 - (ii) that is not the subject of a suspension under subsection 188.2(1),
 - (iii) that has no unpaid liabilities under this Act or under the Excise Tax Act,
 - (iv) that has filed all information returns required by subsection 149.1(14), and
 - (v) that is not the subject of a certificate under subsection 5(1) of the Charities Registration (Security Information) Act or, if it is the subject of such a certificate, the certificate has been determined under subsection 7(1) of that Act not to be reasonable; or
- (b) a municipality in Canada that is approved by the Minister in respect of a transfer of property from the particular charity.

188 (2) Shared liability – revocation tax

A person who, after the time that is 120 days before the end of the taxation year of a charity that is deemed by subsection (1) to have ended, receives property from the charity, is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with the charity for the tax payable under subsection (1.1) by the charity for that taxation year for an amount not exceeding the total of all appropriations, each of which is the amount by which the fair market value of such a property at the time it was so received by the person exceeds the consideration given by the person in respect of the property.

188 (2.1) Non-application of revocation tax

Subsections (1) and (1.1) do not apply to a charity in respect of a notice of intention to revoke given under any of subsections 149.1(2) to (4.1) and 168(1) if the Minister abandons the intention and so notifies the charity or if

- (a) within the one-year period that begins immediately after the taxation year of the charity otherwise deemed by subsection (1) to have ended, the Minister has registered the charity as a charitable organization, private foundation or public foundation; and
- (b) the charity has, before the time that the Minister has so registered the charity,
 - (i) paid all amounts, each of which is an amount for which the charity is liable under this Act (other than subsection (1.1)) or the Excise Tax Act in respect of taxes, penalties and interest, and
 - (ii) filed all information returns required by or under this Act to be filed on or before that time.

188 (3) Transfer of property tax

Where, as a result of a transaction or series of transactions, property owned by a registered charity that is a charitable foundation and having a net value greater than 50% of the net asset amount of the charitable foundation immediately before the transaction or series of transactions, as the case may be, is transferred before the end of a taxation year, directly or indirectly, to one or more charitable organizations and it may reasonably be considered that the main purpose of the transfer is to effect a reduction in the disbursement quota of the foundation, the foundation shall pay a tax under this Part for the year equal to the amount by which 25% of the net value of that property determined as of the day of its transfer exceeds the total of all amounts each of which is its tax payable under this subsection for a preceding taxation year in respect of the transaction or series of transactions.

188 (3.1) Non-application of subsection (3)

Subsection (3) does not apply to a transfer that is a gift to which subsection 188.1(11) or (12) applies.

188 (4) Joint and several, or solidary, liability – tax transfer

If property has been transferred to a charitable organization in circumstances described in subsection (3) and it may reasonably be considered that the organization acted in concert with a charitable foundation for the purpose of reducing the disbursement quota of the foundation, the organization is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with the foundation for the tax imposed on the foundation by that subsection in an amount not exceeding the net value of the property.

188 (5) Definitions – In this section,

net asset amount of a charitable foundation at any time means the amount determined by the formula

$$\mathbf{A} - \mathbf{B}$$

where

A is the fair market value at that time of all the property owned by the foundation at that time, and

B is the total of all amounts each of which is the amount of a debt owing by or any other obligation of the foundation at that time;

net value of property owned by a charitable foundation, as of the day of its transfer, means the amount determined by the formula

$$\mathbf{A} - \mathbf{B}$$

where

A is the fair market value of the property on that day, and

B is the amount of any consideration given to the foundation for the transfer.

189 (6) Taxpayer to file return and pay tax

Every taxpayer who is liable to pay tax under this Part (except a charity that is liable to pay tax under section 188(1)) for a taxation year shall, on or before the day on or before which the taxpayer is, or would be if tax were payable by the taxpayer under Part I for the year, required to file a return of income or an information return under Part I for the year,

- (a) file with the Minister a return for the year in prescribed form and containing prescribed information, without notice or demand therefor;
- (b) estimate in the return the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Receiver General the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under this Part for the year.

189 (6.1) Revoked charity to file returns

Every taxpayer who is liable to pay tax under subsection 188(1.1) for a taxation year shall, on or before the day that is one year from the end of the taxation year, and without notice or demand,

(a) file with the Minister

- (i) a return for the taxation year, in prescribed form and containing prescribed information, and
- (ii) both an information return and a public information return for the taxation year, each in the form prescribed for the purpose of subsection 149.1(14); and

(b) estimate in the return referred to in subparagraph (a)(i) the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under subsection 188(1.1) for the taxation year; and

(c) pay to the Receiver General the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer under subsection 188(1.1) for the taxation year.

189 (6.2) Reduction of revocation tax liability

If the Minister has, during the one-year period beginning immediately after the end of a taxation year of a person, assessed the person in respect of the person's liability for tax under subsection 188(1.1) for that taxation year, has not after that period reassessed the tax liability of the person, and that liability exceeds $1,000, that liability is, at any particular time, reduced by the total of

(a) the amount, if any, by which

- (i) the total of all amounts, each of which is an expenditure made by the charity, on charitable activities carried on by it, before the particular time and during the period (referred to in this subsection as the "post-assessment period") that begins immediately after a notice of the latest such assessment was sent and ends at the end of the one-year period exceeds

- (ii) the income of the charity for the post-assessment period, including gifts received by the charity in that period from any source and any income that would be computed under section 3 if that period were a taxation year, and

(b) all amounts, each of which is an amount, in respect of a property transferred by the charity before the particular time and during the post-assessment period to a person that was at the time of the transfer an eligible donee in respect of the charity, equal to the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property, when transferred, exceeds the consideration given by the person for the transfer.

189 (6.3) Reduction of liability for penalties

If the Minister has assessed a particular person in respect of the particular person's liability for penalties under section 188.1 for a taxation year, and that liability exceeds $1,000, that liability is, at any particular time, reduced by the total of all amounts, each of which is an amount, in respect of a property transferred by the particular person after the day on which the Minister first assessed that liability and before the particular time to another person that was at the time of the transfer an eligible donee described in paragraph 188(1.3)(a) in respect of the particular person, equal to the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property, when transferred, exceeds the total of

- (a) the consideration given by the other person for the transfer, and
- (b) the part of the amount in respect of the transfer that has resulted in a reduction of an amount otherwise payable under subsection 188(1.1).

189 (7) Minister may assess

Without limiting the authority of the Minister to revoke the registration of a registered charity or registered Canadian amateur athletic association, the Minister may also at any time assess a taxpayer in respect of any amount that a taxpayer is liable to pay under this Part.
