RCAAA:

Personal information is collected under the authority of the Income Tax Act and is used to establish and validate the identity and contact information of directors, trustees, officers and/or like officials and authorized representatives of the organization. This information will also be used as a basis for the indirect collection of additional personal information from other internal and external sources, which includes social insurance number (SIN), personal tax information, and relevant financial and biographical information, which may be used to assess the overall risk of registration with respect to the obligations of registration as outlined in the Act and the common law. The SIN is collected pursuant to subsection 237 of the Act and is used for identification purposes.

The Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) will make this form and all attachments available to the public upon request and/or on the Charities Directorate website, except for information or data identified as confidential. Personal information may also be disclosed to the organization in question and/or its authorized representatives and other third parties pursuant to the disclosure provisions under Section 241 of the Act. Personal information may also be shared with other government departments and agencies under information-sharing agreements in accordance with the disclosure provisions under Section 241 of the Act. Incomplete or inaccurate information may result in a range of actions including suspension of tax-receipting privileges, up to and including revocation of registered status.

Information is described in Charities Program CRA PPU 200 and is protected under the Privacy Act. Individuals have a right of protection, access to and correction or notation of their personal information. Please be advised that you are entitled to complain to the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding our handling of your information.

Notification to directors and like officials: The CRA strongly encourages the association to voluntarily inform directors and like officials that their personal information has been collected and disclosed to the CRA for the submission of its annual information return.

Auditors' Report

To the Members of Nordic Combined Ski Canada

I have reviewed the balance sheets of Nordic Combined Ski Canada as at April 30, 2018 and as at April 30, 2017 and the statements of operations and reserves and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Club. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my review.

I have conducted a review to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. My review includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts included in the financial statements. I have not conducted an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards and have made no assessment of the accounting principles used nor an evaluation of the overall financial statement preparation or disclosures.

Based on my review, in my opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Club as at April 30, 2018 and April 30, 2017 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the years then ended.
