Name of the organization Jays Care Foundation				Employer identification number 98-0684822
Return Reference		Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4D		Home Run Scholars - This program is specifically designed to enhance educational outcomes of youth across Toronto. Home Run Scholars provide not just a safe place for children to go after school, but also an exceptional four-hour program that improves academic performance, enhances physical health, enhances social and emotional well-being, and improves student behavior. Girls At Bat - Girls At Bat is a girls-only softball/baseball program that uses baseball as a tool to enhance social and emotional skills of athletes. Jays Care partners with communities, schools and non-profit organizations to help increase female participation in sport by focusing on four primary goals: increased connection, courage, leadership and love of sport. Challenger Baseball - Challenger is an adaptive baseball program run in partnership with Little League Canada and Baseball Canada, that empowers children and youth living with cognitive and/or physical disabilities. The program teaches athletes living with disabilities the core life skills inherent to baseball, including: teamwork, communication, determination, resiliency, inclusion, support and courage. In 2022, Jays Care reached 9,013 athletes across 283 programming sites in schools, communities and leagues. RBI - This program is designed to use baseball as a vehicle for kids to build their confidence and learn the values of being a true team player. RBI is implemented in high-need schools across Toronto and is specifically designed to remove any barriers to participation in team sports such as softball or baseball. Indigenous Play Ball - To answer calls to action around sport and youth programs as laid out in the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada, Jays Care seeks to amplify the voices of Indigenous children and youth, celebrate their success and achievements, and advocate for their right to equal opportunity. James Bay Girls At Bat - James Bay Girls at Bat is a life promotion program that sets the goal of helping female Indigenous youth develop life skills, peer connections and to find a place where they are able to flourish despite the challenges they face. The program works with Indigenous females in communities that have been struggling with increasing rates of suicidal ideations and completions among their youth populations. Since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, the program has run virtually and has consistently reached 50+ youth through virtual programming, workshops, and celebrations. Community Clubhouse: Since 2010, Jays Care has been inviting children and youth from underserved communities to enjoy a fun and unforgettable Blue Jays viewing experience. The clubhouse is a safe space for children and youth and is equipped with memorabilia, accessible benches, and balcony seating. Jays care is proud to offer this amazing space for use by non-profit groups. Indigenous Rookie League - This program is a unique inter-generational baseball program that increases physical and mental health outcomes for more than 1000 children and youth, while also promoting healing through innovative points systems, inter-generational connections and collaboration among neighbouring communities.
